A Mistake.

The impression appears to prevail among many Democrats that we have no Job Office connected with the SEN-TINEL office. This is a mistake. There is no office in the city that is so well prepared to do all kinds of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING as we are (except large bill posters), only in the city, but in the State, for any work they can and on as good terms, as any other office.

1.4 An unpleasant little fracas occurred at one of our leading hotels yesterday, between an army officer and a gentleman from Kansas. Blows were struck and the combattants were parted by friends after a severe scuffle. METROPOLITAN HALL -- Unexpectedly to the public, and indeed to the proprietor of the Metropolitan, the Webb Sisters arrived in the city yesterday morning and were secured for an engagement of six nights. The only intimation given that the theater would be opened last evening, as the regular season had closed, was by bills hastily got out, but sail a good house greeted their reappearance, and they received a stirring welcome. The plays for the evening were Aline and Wo man's Whims, and when we say that the charming sisters excelled themselves in representing the varied characters, we but echo the universa sentiment, loudly expressed, of those who witnessed them. The young ladies have greatly improved. We once thought that it was not possible to gild refined gold, or that Miss Emma as Aline, and Miss Ada in her protean characters were perfect, but they have rounded out to the fulmess of perfection since, and added graces where it was scarcely possible to expect them. From Washington. WASHINGTON, June 28 .- Gen. King and staff arrived in this city on Saturday evening about 9 o'clock and proceeded at once to report himself to the Secretary of War. The report that General Banks is dissatisfied with the order placing Gen. Pope in command of the army of Virginia is not true. Gen. Banks is a soldier and obeys orders. Long ago he expressed his willingness to form a junction with either Fremont or McDowell and act in the field subordinate to them, if by so doing it would contribute in the least to crush the rebellion. The appointment of General Pope was no surprise to Gen. Banks.

From McClellan's Department. New York, June 29 .- The Tribune has issued an extra dated the battle field, giving an account of two days' desperate fighting. A company of Bucktails was surrounded and captured.

Our right wing was forced to retreat. Over

125,000 men were engaged. All civilians were ordered away from the White House. A severe and most determined battle was fought on the right wing on Thursday and Friday, which is claimed by some of our officers as a successful strategic movement, into which in its native forest, or as elaborately finished as art can the enemy had unwillingly been drawn, and which will soon result in the capture of Rich mond and the entire rebel army. The attack was made by the enemy in immense force, who crossed the Chickshominy near the railroad, above Mechanicsville, on Thursday afternoon, who fought desperately, but were unable to drive our men a single rod, though the enemy

> The only forces engaged that day was McCall's Division. The battle lasted from 2 till 9 P. M. when the Division was ordered back. Gen. McClellan was on the field, and expressed > himself satisfied with the result. Thursday about noon the enemy made an attack upon General Stoneman's forces in the vi cinity of Hanover Court house, probably for the purpose of accomplishing an outflanking movement on the right and to engage our attention in that direction. Shortly afterwards they commenced a vigorous cannonading from their works, on an emihalf miles distant; also from two batteries, one above and the other below. They were replied to by Campbell's Pennsylvania batteries on picket duty, one on the neck, and another from behind earthworks at the right of a grove.

At about 2 P. M. the enemy's intantry and squadrons of cavalry crossed the Chickahominy in immense force a short distance above the Virginia Central Railroad, making a rapid advance toward Gen. McCall's division, who were entrenched on a hilly woodland across a swampy ravine, about a mile in the rear of Mechanics-

The 1st Pennsylvania rifles (Bucktails) and Campbell's Pennsylvania battery were on picket duty, all of whom except one company fell back behind the breastworks and rifle pits, where a line of battle was drawn up.

Company K of the Bucktails, who were on picket beyond the railroad, were surrounded by the enemy and the last that was known of them they were trying to cut their way through. It is presumed the greater portion of them were taken prisoners.

The enemy advanced down at the rear of Mechanicsville on a low marshy ground to where our forces were drawn up behind rifle pits and earthworks on an eminence on the northern side of the ravine, where the conflict became most terrible.

The rebels, with the most determined courage, attempted to press forward over miry ground, but the bullets and grape shot fell among them like hail, mowing them down. This continued till dark, when they withdrew. The cannonading was kept up on both sides until about 9 P. M. when the battle ceased. Our forces were covered by earthworks and suffered but slightly.

Late in the afternoon the enemy made a charge with cavalry. About one hundred of them came rushing down and attempted to cross the ravine, when the horses became mired. A squadron of determined, regardless of expense, to issue, free, (for the benefit of suffering humanity) FOUR of the r most in-

The infantry fight was then renewed, and, according to the statement of my informant, Surgeon Humphrey, of the Pennsylvania Bucktail regiment, continued until about 7 A. M., when a retreat was ordered, very much against the will of the Peunsylvania boys, who begged to be al ing SECRETARY PARISIAN CARINET OF ANATOMY AND lowed to hold their position. Tunstall's station, four miles out, was in our possession until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, aster. at which hour the operator at White House heard a strange signal coming over the wire. On going to the instrument he was heralded with what the Union soldiers call the rebel national salute, "Say oh you Yankees." This was the signal given boats in waiting for them. They would doubtless move down immediately to Fortress Monroe, and await the instructions of Gen. McClellan. A number are already up the James River under the protection of the gunbants. Since an early hour on Saturday morning Gen. McClellan has been deprived of a telegraphic communication with Washington. He abandoned its use several hours before it was cut, doubtless being fearful that the enemy might, by placing a magnet on the wires, read his orders. Direct communication with Gen. McClellan is now being opened by the gunboats up the mouth of the Chickahominy.
